

XANADU
HANGAR THEATRE

Carter plays Sonny as a knock-kneed dreamer with a can't-hold-me-back smile. The voice that bursts out of him is unexpectedly rich, and as the show progresses, he reveals himself as a multi-layered actor.

Linda Lowen
Syracuse.com

https://www.syracuse.com/entertainment/2018/08/hangar\_theatre\_xanadu\_review.html

“Adante Carter (Sonny) Flipping fast from despair to delight, he wears the character’s innocence brightly..” “He is a born rock crooner, pulling out the stops in “Don’t Walk Away.” As partners, the two quickly grab our hearts.”

Ross Haarstad
Ithaca Times

https://www.ithaca.com/entertainment/stage/xanadu-hits-all-the-right-notes/article\_f07c3be2-a620-11e8-a9d2-378922827bdc.html

A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM-GULFSHORE PLAYHOUSE

“If Adante Carter's Hero largely focuses on looking handsome — and he does that well — he should know it's not a bad stepping stone as a character.”

Harriet Howard Heithaus
Naples Daily News

<https://www.naplesnews.com/story/entertainment/2018/11/28/gulfshores-forum-makes-musical-comedy-real-roman-circus/2093177002/>

“Mr. Carter is charming as the young Hero, dumbstruck with love...” “I’ve seen other productions where Hero is muscle-bound and dumb, but Mr. Carter’s Hero is relatable and very likeable. And he has a sweet singing voice.”

Nancy Stetson
Florida Weekly

<https://naples.floridaweekly.com/articles/gulfshore-playhouses-forum-pleases-teases/>